CASE NO. 22-MJ-1593-TJS

ORDER

Upon consideration of the “Consent Motion to Continue Preliminary Hearing and Waive Filing of the Indictment” (“the Motion”), (ECF 22) in the above-captioned matter, there being no opposition thereto, good and sufficient cause having been shown, the Court finds that the ends of justice served by continuing the deadlines to hold a preliminary hearing and file an indictment in this case outweigh the interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial, and it is hereby this 8th day of August, 2022, ORDERED, for the reasons set forth in the Motion, which is incorporated herein, that the Motion is GRANTED; and it is further

ORDERED that the Preliminary Hearing in this matter be rescheduled to a date on or before October 10, 2022, to be requested by the parties prior to such date; and it is further ORDERED that the deadline for filing an indictment in this matter is waived until October 10, 2022, per the waiver agreed to by the Defendant, through counsel.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

The Honorable Timothy J. Sullivan
United States Magistrate Judge
